SAQA Broad Spectrum: Abundant Palette
Main Gallery

The Montana / Idaho region of SAQA artists were invited to explore the variety of meanings, images and experiences evoked by the theme Broad Spectrum: Abundant Palette. The natural surroundings and geographic beauty of the region are reflected in many of the works. The boundaries of tradition are pushed as well as established materials used in new and exciting ways. Many works express thoughts, moods or personal stories. Experiments with surface design result in some dynamic works. Repurposing found materials as well as creating something totally new from older more traditional items is evident in some works as well.

July 13 - Sunday at the Museum (SAM) 2-4 pm (a monthly happening with light refreshments). Panelists from the Broad Spectrum Exhibit will discuss their work and experiences as art quilters and exhibitors.

Members FREE, Others $15. No guest passes accepted. PRE-REGISTRATION required.

Colorado Japanese American Women's Quilt Project Northeast Gallery

90 women created 9 quilts telling stories of 72 families. Each quilt represents a culturally rich depiction of heritage, daily life, and family journeys, providing a tangible story of the experiences across generations of women of Japanese ancestry in Colorado and neighboring states. The quilt panels were designed to resemble Japanese scrolls traditionally displayed in a place of honor and represent the roots of the women.

The exhibit will include a self-guided audio tour of narration of the women's stories behind the creation for some of the blocks. Japanese prints paired with American material prints using sashiko quilting, applique, embroidery, machine/hand quilting, and simple pieced quilting, create these simple yet extraordinary quilts.

Open 10am to 4pm daily except Sundays RMQM opens at 11am. SOME SUNDAYS have special events for limited attendance. Please Check Sunday at the Museum dates and website for special event hours.

Gallery Address is 200 Violet Street, Suite 140, Golden, Colorado 80401 303-277-0377.
